Celebration of Fr Paul - p 2

Parish School of Religion - p 4

Visioning Sessions - p 5

Dear parishioners,

Today we hear the third of three Gospels in which Jesus instructs his disciples for their mission. First, he called them by name and designated them as his apostles. Then he reminded them not to be afraid of any difficulty they may encounter along the way. Now he explains the conditions and the rewards of following him.

St Francis of Assisi interpreted Jesus' words, "take up your cross and follow after me" as the call to live the evangelical counsels: poverty, chastity, obedience. These three usually take the form of vows professed by religious men and women, forming the basis of "consecrated life."

The call of Jesus is for all Christians, and all of us are consecrated to God in Baptism. The evangelical counsels have value for everyone. We should review our commitments and responsibilities, take a look at our daily way of life, and see how we are living with the mind and heart of Christ. The counsel of poverty reminds us that our true riches are the people we love and who have blessed us with their friendship. The counsel of chastity calls us to faithfulness in our relationships and respect for the persons of others. The counsel of obedience – probably the hardest of the three – reminds us that Christ came among us as a servant, not to do his own will but the will of his Father.

Thank you for your kindness to the sisters from the Congregation of the Daughters of Mary, on behalf of the annual Missionary Plan of Cooperation.

If you would like to donate to the missions, please use the Missionary Plan of Cooperation envelope, distributed last Sunday, or make your check payable to St. Pius V, write "Mission" on the memo line, and place in the collection.

Peace,

Fr Paul

Pass On the Good News!

What good news? The Good News of Jesus and our Catholic Faith.

This fall, children throughout the South City, First Grade (Pre Sacramental Prep) through Confirmation will sign-up to learn more about Jesus and the Catholic Faith.

You can help them grow by becoming a catechist or substitute catechist.

South City PSR meets Monday Evening from September through May on the campus of St. John the Baptist.

As you nurture the faith of our young, you will learn and grow as well. One longtime catechist commented:

"I learn so much from the children" and another, "I get more out of it than I put in."

Training, materials and support will be provided. For more information, contact Deacon George Watson stl.scdpsr@gmail.com or 314-773-3070

Children's Liturgy of the Word

Children's Liturgy of the Word will be postponed throughout the summer and will resume in September.

NEWS FROM OUR FOOD PANTRY

Your lose your job. Your hours are cut. You have a baby. A relationship ends. Your car breaks down and you can't get to work. Your disability or social security check doesn't stretch to cover your rent and utilities.

These are some of the realities that bring increasing numbers of neighbors to our Food Pantry or to our St. Vincent De Paul phone lines to ask for help with rent, utilities, car repair, or vouchers for beds, clothing or other furniture.

You pray for the hungry. Then you feed them. That's how prayer works.

Who are some of the neighbors helped over the past 2 month?

Joyce, who is now back to work as a nurses' aide at a Children's Hospital. She was unable to pay her electric bill while on maternity leave and faces disconnection.

Allen, who fell behind on his rent because he needed to repair his car. He works as a Door Dash driver.

Ben, who works for a contracted food service at a public school. When school closed, he was laid off. He is looking for employment, but is behind on his rent after missing just one paycheck. His earnings are so low that he will never catch up.

Carol, who receives just $941 per month from SSI. Her monthly rent is $650 and she cannot pay both utilities and rent in any given month. Her gas is disconnected and she faces disconnection of her Ameren service.

Thank You from Cabrini Academy!

This time of year is filled with a great sense of satisfaction as we reflect on the success of the current school year and look forward with hope to the next. God has blessed us with a vibrant school community.

Please help us grow!

Through great love and generosity we have accomplished much. Your support of our students and academic programs allows us to make a life-changing impact. You may contact me directly at: Caroline.Koetting@CabriniAcademy.org

THANK YOU!

*We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together
in Your name.*

*With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts;
Teach us the way we must go
and how we are to pursue it.*

*We are weak and sinful; do not
